FANCIFUL! Art That Makes You Smile

In a perfect exhibition for the times, Shell Point resident artists display whimsical artwork, with Maxine Brooks' paper menagerie; Nancy Dimick's cardboard creations; Barbara Heatherly's high-flying textiles; Helen Kettelman's fanciful collages; and Carol Mann's imaginative textiles. In addition, well-known guest artist Katie Gardenia—formerly of Sanibel Island and now in San Antonio, Texas—is displaying a charming work that will touch your heart. In the Shell Point Gallery. FREE

Thursday, March 2 – Saturday, April 29

Legacy-Artist Exhibitions

This pair of exhibitions honors Shell Point artists in recognition of their service to the artistic community and excellence in their body of work. In The Shape of Color in the Tribby Legacy Gallery, Anita Putnam's distinctive work showcases strong colors and bold shapes. In the Overlook Gallery, Sallie Rich's Relationships features "Great Blues in Love," which documents a heron couple's courtship. FREE

Friday, March 24 – Saturday, April 29

Styled Steel: The Art of Automotive Design

This outstanding exhibition pairs the photographs of resident Don Adams with the works of two guest artists: Shah Hadjebi's watercolors and Al Chailosky's minatures. Together, this skilled trio explores the art of automobile design and its related culture. FREE

CONCERTS

Thursday, March 16 • 7 p.m.

Windsync

WindSync is a collective of five outstanding North American wind musicians whose concerts are intimate, joyful, and thoughtfully programmed. The quintet eliminates the "fourth wall" between musicians and often performs from memory, creating an intimate connection with the audience. Tickets $50

Friday, March 24 • 7 p.m.

Gentri: The Gentlemen Trio

The music of GENTRI is transfused with lush, epic orchestrations and rich, dynamic three-part harmonies from a trio of dynamic tenors who pioneered a signature sound they call "cinematic pop." Tickets $55

ACADEMY OF LIFELONG LEARNING

Women's History Month

Historian and actress Leslie Goddard introduces you to the private women behind the public myths.

Friday, March 10 • 7 p.m.

America's favorite First Lady Jackie Kennedy looks back on her life and shares stories about her marriage, her fight for privacy amidst intense media scrutiny, and her work to restore the White House. Tickets $15

Saturday, March 11 • 10 a.m.

Legendary cookbook author, television star, and champion of French cooking Julia Child discusses everything from her relationship with her husband Paul Child to the mishaps of cooking on television. Tickets $15

Friday, March 31 • 4 p.m.

The Great American Songbook, International Cabaret and Bossa Nova

For more than 30 years, the duo of Sonny and Perley performs a unique blend of Jazz, Great American Songbook, Bossa Nova, and International Cabaret. The duo has even presented a prelude concert for the legendary Broadway composer Stephen Sondheim! Tickets $15
